SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of five (5) year(s).

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter.

☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check, if applicable.) *

If this judgment imposes a fine or restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties section of this judgment.

The defendant shall comply with the Standard Conditions of Supervised Release that have been adopted by this court as set forth in this judgment. The defendant shall also comply with the Special Conditions of Supervision as set forth below and any additional conditions attached to this judgment.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant's employment shall be subject to approval by the probation officer.
2. The defendant shall authorize release to the US Probation Officer any and all financial information by execution of a release of financial information form, or by any other appropriate means, as directed by the probation officer.
3. The defendant shall maintain a single checking and/or savings account in his/her name. The defendant shall deposit into this account all income, monetary gains or other pecuniary proceeds, and make use of this account for payment of all personal expenses. All other accounts must be disclosed to the probation officer.
4. The defendant shall obtain his GED certificate while on supervision as directed by the U.S. Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall participate in a cognitive behavioral treatment program as directed by the probation officer. Such programs may include group sessions led by a counselor or participation in a program administered by the probation officer.
6. The defendant shall participate in and successfully complete a program for domestic violence counseling, as approved by the probation officer.
7. The defendant shall participate in a sex offender assessment and treatment program as approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall abide by all rules and requirements of such program. This assessment and treatment program may include the use of the polygraph to assist in case planning and case monitoring.
8. The defendant shall register, if required by law, with the state sex offender registration agency in any state where the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student and shall provide written notification of compliance with this condition as directed by the probation officer.
9. The defendant shall reside at a residence approved by the probation officer, and shall notify the probation officer at least 30 days prior to any change in residence.
10. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer, if required by law.
11. The defendant shall not associate with any known gang members.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF PROBATION AND SUPERVISED RELEASE

The Judges of the District of Oregon adopt the following standard conditions of probation and supervised release to apply in every case in which probation and/or supervised release is imposed upon a defendant. The individual judge may impose other conditions deemed advisable in individual cases of probation or supervised release supervision, as consistent with existing or future law.

1. The defendant shall report in person to the probation office for the district to which he or she is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.
2. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. Revocation of probation or supervised release is mandatory for illegal possession of a controlled substance.
3. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive, or dangerous device.
4. If the defendant illegally uses drugs or abuses alcohol, has a history of drug or alcohol abuse, or drug use or possession is determined to be an element of the defendant's criminal history or instant offense, the defendant shall participate in a substance abuse treatment program as directed by the probation officer which may include urinalysis testing to determine if the defendant has used drugs or alcohol. In addition to urinalysis testing that may be part of a formal drug treatment program, the defendant shall submit up to eight (8) urinalysis tests per month.
5. The defendant shall submit to a search of his/her person, residence, office or vehicle, when conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
6. The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer.
7. The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.
8. The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer. The defendant may decline to answer inquiries if a truthful response would tend to incriminate him/her. Such a refusal to answer may constitute grounds for revocation.
9. The defendant shall support his or her dependents and meet other family responsibilities to the best of his or her financial ability.
10. The defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation, unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons.
11. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of any change in residence or employment.
12. The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician. If, at any time, the probation officer has reasonable cause to believe the defendant is using illegal drugs or is abusing alcohol, the defendant shall submit to urinalysis testing, breathalyzer testing, or reasonable examination of the arms, neck, face, and lower legs.
13. The defendant shall not knowingly frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered.
14. The defendant shall not knowingly associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not knowingly associate with any person convicted of a felony, unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer.
15. The defendant shall permit a probation officer to visit him or her at any reasonable time at home or elsewhere, and shall permit confiscation of any contraband observed in plain view by the probation officer.
16. The defendant shall notify the probation officer within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer.
17. The defendant shall not enter into any agreement to act as an informant or special agent of a law enforcement agency without the permission of the court.
18. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant shall notify third parties of risks that may be occasioned by his or her criminal record or personal history and characteristics, and shall permit the probation officer to make such notifications and to confirm the defendant's compliance with such a notification requirement. This requirement will be exercised only when the probation officer believes a reasonably foreseeable risk exists or a law mandates such notice. Unless the probation officer believes the defendant presents an immediate threat to the safety of an identifiable individual, notice shall be delayed so the probation officer can arrange for a court hearing and the defendant can obtain legal counsel.

 ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1. You must undergo a 14-day quarantine at the residence approved by U.S. Probation (subject to location monitoring at Probation's discretion).
2. You must participate in a location monitoring program until January 1, 2023. During this period, you are subject to home detention and your movement in the community is restricted as follows: You are restricted to your residence at all times, except for employment, education, religious services, medical treatment, mental health or substance abuse treatment, attorney visits, court appearances, court-ordered obligations, or other activities as pre-approved by the probation officer. Unless otherwise specified by the Court, your participation in the location monitoring program will be monitored using technology approved by the probation officer, which may include radio frequency (RF) monitoring, GPS monitoring, or voice recognition. You must abide by all technology requirements. You must follow the program rules and pay all or part of the costs of participation in the location monitoring program as directed by the Court or the probation officer.
3. You must participate in a substance abuse treatment or alcohol abuse treatment program, which may include inpatient treatment, and follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer will supervise your participation in the program (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.). The program may include urinalysis testing to determine if you have used drugs or alcohol. You must not attempt to obstruct or tamper with the testing methods.
4. You must submit to substance abuse testing to determine if you have used a prohibited substance. Such testing may include up to twelve (12) urinalysis tests per month. You must not attempt to obstruct or tamper with the testing methods.
